

Debt Relief & Credit Repair

» Receiving LETTERS and Calls from Debt Collectors?

If you are receiving debt collection letters and phone calls, you may be able to sue the debt collectors for violating the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA) or other Federal Law.

Save the letters and voicemails! Do not throw them out or delete them!

» You may be eligible for a monetary settlement of $1,000

If a debt collector violates the FDCPA, you may be eligible to receive up to $1,000. We may even be able to cancel and delete the debt from your credit report.

» Client DOES NOT pay attorney's fees

The FDCPA not only holds debt collectors accountable for abusive collections practices, but it also allows consumers who are being harassed by a debtor to obtain monetary relief as well as have their attorney's fees paid in the process.

» The AMOUNT of the debt does not matter

Any and all amounts of debt are actionable under the FDCPA. The FDCPA includes all types of debts used for personal, family, and household purposes. This includes Credit Cards, Medical Bills, Judgments, Insurance, and all types of Loans.
